What does an Advocate do?

An advocate helps you to

• Express your views
• Secure your rights
• Represent your interests
• Obtain services you need

We offer one to one support in private, and our service is free, confidential and independent.

We are here to support you and, if you need it, we can represent you.

We can help you by

• Exploring your options
• Helping you make informed decisions
• Resolving issues with your care and treatment
• Accessing information (eg health records)
• Accessing other services
• Helping you write letters and make phone calls
• Explaining the complaints process and progressing complaints
• Help you understand your rights under the Mental Health Act
• Going with you to meetings

Our advocates can go with you to

• Ward rounds
• Care programme approach (CPA) meetings
• Meetings appealing your section
• Medication reviews
• Discharge (section 117) meetings
